No new matter is added to the application by way of these specification and claim amendments.

The objections and rejections raised by the examiner in the Office Action are overcome or they are traversed as set forth below.

The examiner objected to the specification for lacking section headings.

The examiner's objection is overcome by amending the specification above to include appropriate section headings.

II. THE CLAIM OBJECTIONS

The examiner objected to certain informalities with claims 1, 10 and 20. The examiner's objections are overcome by:

- Amending claim 10 to add a period at the end of the sentence.
- Amending claim 20 as the examiner suggested.

III. THE SECTION 101 REJECTION
